

RHODE ISLAND HINDU TEMPLE SOCIETY

HALL, CLASSROOMS AND OTHER SPACES FACILITIES RULES AND REGULATIONS

Please read the following rules and initial at the end of each section as indicated

General:

1. The building may not be used for profit endeavors.
2. Each group using the space shall be responsible for the supervision of their guests and children.
3. Children's shall not be allowed to run within the temple facility.
4. The guests shall use only the spaces permitted by the temple.

Liability:

1. The temple is not responsible for any food, beverages, or other items brought by group.
2. Alcohol is not allowed on the premises.
3. Smoking is not allowed on the premises.
4. Religious or cultural songs are permitted to played in the temple. No movie songs or dances.
5. The building shall be subject to inspection at any time by any authorized representative of RIHTS board.
6. The group using the space shall be liable for all breakage and other damage or loss to the property resulting from the occupancy and use of the building and grounds.
7. No chairs or tables shall be transferred from one room to the other.
8. The chairs or tables if moved around within the rooms to facilitate the use of the space, these shall be placed back in the order they had been found at the start.
9. Religious function such as "HOLI" when organized shall limit the use of colors outside the building. No one shall be allowed to bring the colors within the building.

Set-up:

1. All candles shall be contained open flames are prohibited.
2. No decorations shall be displayed or hung from the ceiling or walls.
3. Table clothes and cutlery shall not be provided by the temple, it is the responsibility of the group. (Make sure the temple cutlery is not used during the event).

Clean-up:

1. After the use of spaces, place all rubbish in plastic bags and place the bags in the dumpster located on the South side of the building (the temple will not furnish the garbage bags).
2. All tables and chairs shall be wiped down.
3. A custodian is mandatory for minimum of two hours. The charges shall be paid the group using the space.

We have read the above rules and regulations for use of the temple facility and agree to comply with the same.

Authorized Signature: _____

Date: _____